WELCOME

It's that time of year when we emerge from our wintery cocoons and embrace all that Spring has to offer, including an annual trip to Italy with the ST. ALi Italian Film Festival!

This edition features a stunning selection of contemporary Italian cinema, a nod to Pier Paolo Pasolini on the centenary of his birth, and a spotlight on Naples, featuring Mario Martone's Nostalgia selected at the Cannes Film Festival (In Competition).

We are also excited to be screening two very fresh films direct from their world premieres: Francesca Archibugi's highly anticipated ensemble drama The Hummingbird (Il colibrì), direct from Toronto International Film Festival (Gala); and Gianni Amelio's Lord of The Ants (Il signore delle formiche), straight from Venice Film Festival (In Competition).

Join us at the cinema for a ST. ALi Coffee, vino or aperitivo, as we share the enjoyment of seeing films on the big screen.

Enjoy, indulge and live la dolce vita!

FESTIVAL GUEST

Born in Pescara, Sara Serraiocco developed a passion for dance and cinema from a young age and moved to Rome to attend the Centro Sperimentale di Cinematografia (the Italian National Film School).

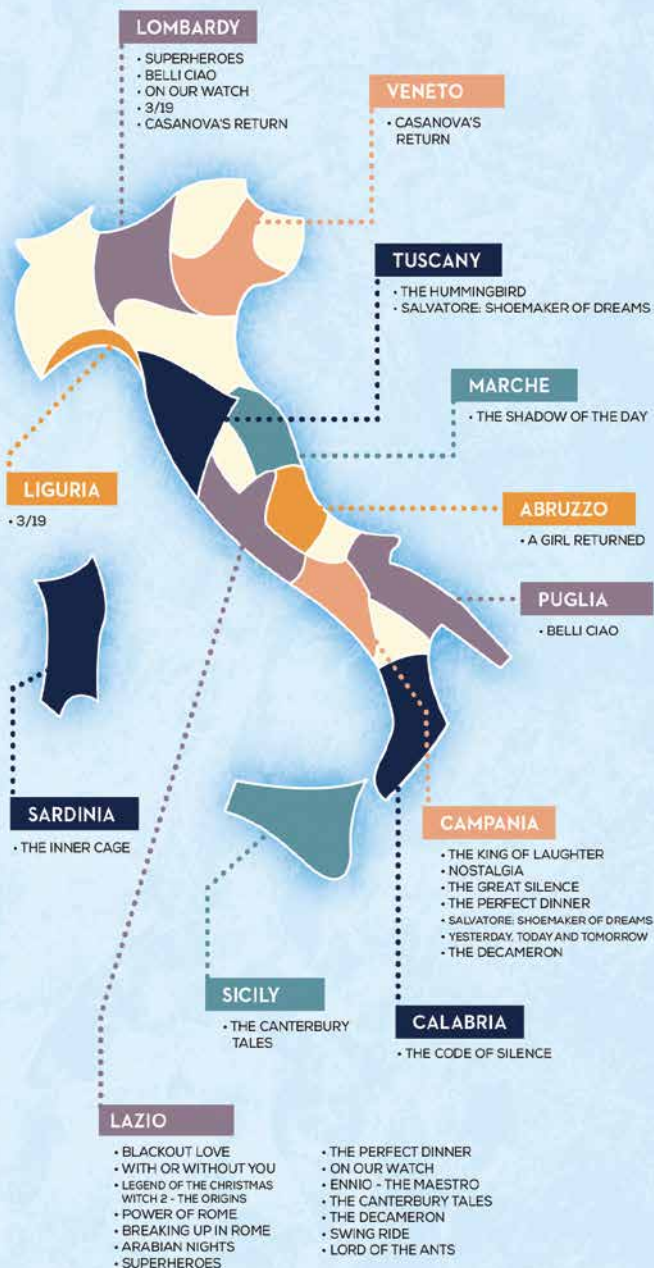

Serraiocco made her feature film debut in 2013, starring in Salvo, awarded Critics' Week Grand Prix at the Cannes Film Festival that year and for which she won the Italian Golden Globe for Best Actress and the "Guglielmo Biraghi" Nastro d'Argento Award for Best New Talent. From then, Serraiocco continued to work consistently on many critically acclaimed films including: Cloro (2015), directed by Lamberto Sanfelice; and 2017's Worldly Girl (La Ragazza del Mondo), for which she won the "Premio Pasinetti" (the National Guild of Film Critics' Award) for Best Actress at the Venice Film Festival.

Serraiocco was chosen as a member of the jury at the 72nd annual Berlin International Film Festival (Shooting Stars award) in 2016, and as a member of the international jury at the Kiev Film Festival in 2019.

Sara Serraiocco is arriving directly from the Venice Film Festival to present two films at this year's festival: Special Presentation Lord of the Ants, and Casanova's Return, directed by Oscar-winning Gabriele Salvatores.

YOUR JOURNEY TO ITALY

BELLI CIAO

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Starring and co-written by popular comic duo Pio and Amedeo, hit comedy Belli Ciao from Gennaro Nunziante (Where am I Going?, IFF16) delivers a lighthearted north versus south culture clash. Pio and Amedeo are inseparable friends until they finish high school, when they are faced with the fateful dilemma that grips young people of the South: give up everything and go north for work or stay home and build a better tomorrow. While the ambitious Pio decides to leave for Milan, Amedeo chooses to remain in their hometown, dividing his time between a health care shop and the town council, working with the Mayor to help prevent the exodus of the youth to the north. But to revive the local economy, a large investment is needed and due to an unpredictable twist of fate, the two friends meet again after years apart. By working towards a common goal, the pair rediscover their friendship and realise that home is not where you are, but who you are with.

YESTERDAY, TODAY AND TOMORROW

IERI, OGGI, DOMANI

Winner of the Best Foreign Language Film Oscar at the 1964 Academy Awards, Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow is a sparkingly original trilogy of risqué romantic comedies set in different parts of Italy, with Sophia Loren and Marcello Mastroianni starring in each story. The two play lovers in the three vignettes, reuniting on the screen after seven years. In Naples, poor but resourceful Adelina supports her husband by selling black market cigarettes. In Milan, wealthy Anna debates her preference for a Rolls Royce or her husband and is having an affair with poor Renzo, whose infatuation is tested by a near-tragedy. In Rome, prostitute Mara resists the advances of her neighbour's grandson, a priest who has fallen in love with her. This episode features the iconic scene: a provocative striptease by Loren for her client (played by Mastroianni). Witty and unforgettable, this gem from master filmmaker Vittorio de Sica (Bicycle Thieves, Marriage Italian Style) is picture-postcard beautiful and effortlessly hilarious.

DIRECTOR: VITTORIO DE SICA

Vittorio was a leading figure in the neorealist movement. Starting out as an actor, by the late 1920s he was successful in the Italian theatre and light comedy movies. Turning to directing in 1940, four of his films won Academy Awards: Shoeshine (1946) and Bicycle Thieves (1948) which won special Oscars before the foreign film category was established, plus Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow (1963) and The Garden of the Finzi Continis (1970) which won Best Foreign Language Film Oscar.

LORD OF THE ANTS

IL SIGNORE DELLE FORMICHE

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Screening direct from Venice competition, the powerful new drama from Gianni Amelio (Hammamet IFF20, Open Doors) recounts the controversial trial of Aldo Braibanti, an intellectual whose relationship with a younger student caused a nationwide scandal. Rome, 1968. Soft-spoken playwright Braibanti (Luigi Lo Cascio, The Ties IFF21) is arrested on charges of 'plagiarism'; that he subjugated another person and led them morally astray. The charges - resting on a rarely cited Fascist-era law - are brought by the family of his partner Ettore (newcomer Leonardo Maltese) who, seeking to extract the younger man from Braibanti's influence, commits him to a psychiatric hospital. Braibanti elects to run his own defence, one where the very essence of his life is scrutinised: art, science, philosophy and sexuality. Meanwhile, the case receives national attention through the efforts of a local journalist (Elio Germano, Hidden Away IFF 21) whose empathetic reporting stokes community suspicion and the ire of his editor. Elegantly mounted and superbly performed, Amelio's impassioned film is a deeply affecting reminder of the conflicts that simmer just below the surface of 'civilised' society, as much now as ever.

THE HUMMINGBIRD

IL COLIBRÌ

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Direct from its World Premiere at the Toronto International Film Festival, this profoundly moving drama follows the life of Marco Carrera (Pierfrancesco Favino, also in Nostalgia) from childhood to adulthood and the myriad of relationships along the way. Featuring an all-star ensemble cast including Nanni Moretti (Three Floors), Kasia Smutniak (also in 3/19) and Berenice Bejo, The Hummingbird follows a life of fatal coincidences, losses and absolute loves. Based on the strength of memories, the story flits from one period to another, from the early 1970s to the near future. Along his journey from a platonic love affair by the sea, to marrying a woman in Florence and starting a family, Marco receives the help of his psychoanalyst (Moretti), who teaches him how to welcome the most unexpected changes of direction. Bringing the international bestselling novel by Sandro Veronesi to the big screen, Archibugi's The Hummingbird delivers a story of the ancestral force of life and the struggle to resist what sometimes seems unsustainable, even with the powerful weapons of illusion, happiness and cheerfulness.

DIRECTOR: FRANCESCA ARCHIBUGI

Francesca Archibugi (born Rome, 1960) is an actress, director and writer. In the 1970s, she acted in a handful of films, but her work behind the camera flourished after she studied filmmaking at the Centro Sperimentale di Cinematografia Cinecittà. After directing short films in the early 1980s, she made her feature film debut with Mignon Has Come to Stay (1988), which won 5 David di Donatello awards. Her 1993 film The Great Pumpkin solidified her reputation as one of Italy's most important directors.

NOSTALGIA

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

The excellent Pierfrancesco Favino (Padre nostro IFF21, The Traitor IFF20) stars in suspenseful drama Nostalgia, a bittersweet exploration of the complexity of homecoming. After forty years spent in the Middle East and Africa, businessman Felice Lasco (Favino) returns to his hometown of Rione Sanità in Naples. Visiting his ageing mother, Teresa (Aurora Quattrocchi), he is upset to discover she has moved from his childhood home to a poorly maintained ground floor apartment. While he has forgotten how to speak the Neapolitan dialect, he feels that despite the years which have passed, everything is the same. Wandering his old neighbourhood's streets, he is caught up in memories of his past and criminal youth. Despite local priest Don Luigi's (Francesco Di Leva) advice to leave his past behind, he seeks out childhood friend Oreste (Tommaso Ragno), now a feared local mobster. Directed and co-written by Mario Martone, this atmospheric adaptation of Ermanno Rea's 2016 novel is an absorbing tale of regrets and a nostalgic love-letter to Naples.

ENNIO - THE MAESTRO

ENNIO

From Oscar-winning director Giuseppe Tornatore (Cinema Paradiso, Malena), Ennio - The Maestro celebrates the life and legacy of the legendary Italian composer Ennio Morricone. Centred around an in-depth interview with Morricone recorded shortly before his death in 2020, aged 91 and conducted by Tornatore, the film forms a well-rounded portrait of the maestro by weaving together archival footage, music and testimonies from artists and directors, including Bernardo Bertolucci, Marco Bellocchio, Dario Argento, Quentin Tarantino, Bruce Springsteen and Hans Zimmer. Yet it also reveals the lesser-known side of Morricone, including his passion for the game of chess, which may have mysterious links with his music, and the origins of some of his music, like the howl of the coyote that inspired the theme of The Good, the Bad and the Ugly. From his early arrangements to his cinema debut with Sergio Leone, to his Academy Award-winning score for The Hateful Eight (2016), we delve into the life of the most prolific film composer of the 20th century, composer of over 500 unforgettable scores.

SALVATORE: SHOEMAKER OF DREAMS

Presented by

MIFF Melbourne International Film Festival

Growing up poor in Bonito, Italy, Salvatore Ferragamo began his career as a shoemaker when he was barely a teenager. Immigrating to America in 1915 at the age of 16, his work would soon help invent the glamour of Hollywood's silent era as he created shoes for iconic films including The Thief of Bagdad and The Ten Commandments. Overcoming a Depression-era setback, Ferragamo rebounded and would define mid-century elegance for performers including Audrey Hepburn, Marilyn Monroe, and Rita Hayworth — all while embarking on a love story and warm family life with his wife, Wanda, and their six children. In Salvatore: Shoemaker of Dreams, acclaimed filmmaker Luca Guadagnino (Call Me by Your Name) tracks Ferragamo's life from humble beginnings to California and to a studio in Florence, Italy. Combining a treasure trove of 100-year-old archival footage; an extraordinary stop-motion "shoe ballet"; and incisive commentary, this documentary is a portrait of a man whose vision, passion, and craftsmanship made him "shoemaker to the stars" and an enduring cultural, fashion, and artistic influence.

NAPLES, THE HEARTBEAT OF ITALIAN CINEMA

PRESENTED BY THE ITALIAN CULTURAL INSTITUTE MELBOURNE

I am happy to help bring a selection of films from the New Neapolitan Cinema movement to the attention of the local public. With this expression we usually mean the rich Neapolitan film heritage of the last 30 years, cinema that has won acclaim from the public and critics.

A recent example is the victory of nine David Donatello awards and 38 nominations for Neapolitan cinema and filmmakers. This growing movement has transformed into a school and artistic reference and what has emerged is a city which, together with Campania region, is experiencing a real boom in the audio-visual industry. The result is a new image of Naples, which, although told in its contemporaneity, never loses its identity: however, the gaze is new and shuns both the tradition of stereotypes and that of folklore. The selection will fascinate for the heterogeneity of topics and stories as well as for the diversity of styles.

Our support for this Italian Film Festival is part of the BeIT strategy of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation: promoting cinema means expressing and promoting culture and values.

PIER PAOLO PASOLINI CENTENARY RETROSPECTIVE

In this retrospective celebrating the centenary of Pier Paolo Pasolini's birth, we present three of his iconic film adaptations of literary works: The Canterbury Tales on its 50th anniversary, Arabian Nights and The Decameron.

Born on the 5th of March 1922 in Bologna, Pier Paolo Pasolini was a controversial Italian motion-picture director, actor, poet, novelist and intellectual, noted for his socially critical, stylistically unorthodox films.

After a childhood spent in northeastern Italy, he attended the University of Bologna, studying art history and literature and was a published poet at 19. In the 1950s, he worked with Federico Fellini on the screenplays for Nights of Cabiria (1957) and La dolce vita (1960) and was nearly forty when he directed his first feature, Accattone (1961), cowritten with Sergio Citti.

After making his best-known film The Gospel According to Saint Matthew (1964), Pasolini's films alternated between scandalously erotic adaptations of classic literary texts, including Oedipus Rex (1967); The Decameron (1971); The Canterbury Tales (1972); Arabian Nights (1974), with his own more personal projects expressing his controversial views, notably Teorema (1968) and the notorious Salò, or the 120 Days of Sodom (1975).

He was murdered in mysterious circumstances on November 2, 1975, and his legacy remains contentious.

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

In this intriguing drama, the life of Camilla (Kasia Smutniak, Perfect Strangers IFF16), an elegant and successful lawyer, is turned upside down one rainy night in Milan. Immersed in a daily routine composed of meetings, phone calls and million-dollar transactions, Camilla doesn't know what it is like to have free time. But one night her world is forced to stop when she is involved in a fatal road accident. Overcome by doubts that perhaps she is responsible, she becomes involved in an investigation that will take her very far from the places and landscapes she is used to frequenting. At her side on this uncertain journey, there is Bruno (Francesco Colella), with whom Camilla - while trying to reconstruct the life of a stranger - discovers herself. Directed by Silvio Soldini (Bread and Tulips), 3/19 sheds light on two starkly different realities - the world of those who have everything and those who do not.

A GIRL RETURNED

L'ARMINUTA

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

In the summer of 1975 in central Italy, a 13-year-old girl (newcomer Sofia Fiore), suitcase in one hand and a bag of shoes in the other, knocks at the door of a farmstead. So begins the story of a teenager who lost everything overnight: a comfortable home, her closest friends, the unconditional love of her parents – or rather the people she believed were her parents. For “l’Arminuta” as her peers call her, a new and very different life begins. Her new home is smaller and darker than that of her wealthier adoptive parents, there are brothers everywhere and little food on the table to share. Faced with a new life in a new daily environment, she must also grapple with the feelings of abandonment brought on by her reunion with the family she never knew. Adapted from a 2017 best-selling novel by Donatella Di Pietrantonio and rendered with stunning emotional clarity, Giuseppe Bonito’s third feature A Girl Returned is a thoughtful examination of childhood, motherhood, and the ties that bind.

BLACKOUT LOVE

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Valeria (Anna Foglietta, Perfect Strangers IFF16) has her life completely figured out. She moves from one relationship to the other, without ever looking back. She coaches a women's volleyball team, and her coaching goes well beyond the rules of the game, teaching her girls how to be independent and to avoid pain when dealing with love. The only man she ever lowered her guard for was her ex-boyfriend Marco (Alessandro Tedeschi, The Invisible Witness) who left her heartbroken. When, after a very unusual accident, he suddenly comes back into her life, Valeria decides the time has come to exact her revenge on him. But it will not be as easy as she thinks, as sometimes letting go of love means growing up. The debut film from Francesca Marino, Blackout Love is a fun and biting comedy exploring modern love told from the perspective of an unconventional female character.

CASANOVA'S RETURN

IL RITORNO DI CASANOVA

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

In this new drama from Gabriele Salvatores, the excellent Toni Servillo stars as Leo Bernadi, a successful and acclaimed Italian director. He is approaching the end of his career but he cannot accept his slow decline. The last movie he just finished shooting is inspired by the novel about Casanova by Arthur Schnitzler, a character so similar to the director, even more than he could imagine. This Casanova has lost his charm and his attraction to women, he's broke and no longer eager to travel through Europe and after a long exile, he simply wants to go back to Venice, his homeland. While traveling home, Casanova meets a girl, Marcoline. She reawakens his desire, so he tries to seduce her but that leads him to a tragic understanding: he's an old man now. It is not by chance that Leo decided to tell this story right now, in a pivotal moment of his life and career. The destiny of both Casanova and Leo leads them to a final confrontation.

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

An entertaining new comedy from Pierfrancesco 'Pif' Diliberto (The Mafia Only Kills in the Summer IFF14), On Our Watch takes aim at the technology multinationals that have transformed our modern world for better or worse. Arturo (Fabio De Luigi) is an up-and-coming manager who without suspecting it, invents an algorithm that effectively makes his position within the company superfluous. His life quickly crumbles as he loses his job, his girlfriend and his friends in rapid succession. In order to stay afloat and not end up on the street, he obtains a job as a delivery rider for FUUBER, a large multinational technology giant, shuttling takeaway orders around town while his movements are monitored and evaluated by a strict app. His only consolation is Stella (Ilenia Pastorelli), a hologram girlfriend also connected to FUUBER to whom Arturo, during his week-long free trial, becomes attached. But unable to afford to renew his subscription, Arturo is forced to work hard to find love and freedom again.

POWER OF ROME

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

In this fascinating documentary, journey through the wonders of the Eternal City, an open-air theatre where the history of the world was staged. Actor Edoardo Leo (also in Breaking Up in Rome) roams the streets of his native Rome with a new perspective on the city that almost died many times and each time was re-founded, regenerating from its own ashes and creating the Western World from Roman heritage. Tracing the birth of the Roman Empire, from the imperial creation of Augustus to the madness of Nero; from the chaotic terraces of the Colosseum to the architectural harmonies of Hadrian's Villa; from the dream of Constantine to the anguish of Marcus Aurelius, the documentary charts the marvels of the city and its history. Between odd encounters, getaways, unexpected twists, and surreal moments in which he will find himself captured by the faces and voices of the "Roman Gods", Leo takes us on a journey of discovery, sharing with us his amazement and fear, anxiety and wonder.

SUPEREROI

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

You need superpowers to love someone for an entire lifetime. This tender dramatic comedy from Paolo Genovese (Perfect Strangers IFF16) tells the poignant and passionate love story of Anna (the sublime Jasmine Trinca, The Goddess of Fortune IFF20) and Marco (Alessandro Borghi, Suburra: Blood on Rome). Anna is a cartoonist with an impulsive and nonconformist personality and Marco is a physics teacher convinced that every phenomenon has its own explanation. Yet what keeps them together is an unknown that no formula can reveal or explain. Following the young couple who fall in love and struggle to keep their relationship alive through tenderness and fights, lies and emotions, secrets and cheatings, it seems that their superpower is finding the strength to keep their relationship together for over a decade. Based on the eponymous novel written by Genovese himself and featuring a perfectly aligned soundtrack, Superheroes is a touching drama about couples and the effect of time on their relationships.

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Withdrawn and overweight fifteen-year-old Benedetta (Gaia Di Pietro) lives in rural Italy with her parents and her two younger sisters. After work, her father enjoys tinkering with cars while her mother takes out her frustration on Benedetta, and her mundane life stands at odds with her inner world. When a fairground pops up near her family's home, she meets one of the workers, Amanda (Andrea Carpenzano), a self-determined trans woman who works at the fairground, among other jobs. Benedetta is immediately fascinated by Amanda's self-confidence and independence, and school quickly fades into the background, as she is magnetically drawn to this colourful and exciting new world and their cautious friendship. Through Amanda, Benedetta glimpses a freer life beyond the horizon of her immediate surroundings, and she finds herself wandering down a path toward adulthood. A sensitive and poetic coming-of-age tale, Chiara Bellosi's second film Swing Ride takes a tender look at an unusual friendship whilst unfolding a tale of self-discovery and breaking free.

THE CODE OF SILENCE

UNA FEMMINA

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

An evocative, dark drama inspired by true stories, The Code of Silence is set in the wild Calabrian landscape where hardship and beauty go hand in hand. Having lost her mother when she was young, the restless Rosa (Lina Siciliano) has grown up in a southern Italian village with her grandmother and her uncle's family. Rosa is haunted by oppressive dreams and images that cast a gloomy shadow over her present. Yet, the more she recalls her memories of the mysterious circumstances of her mother's death, the more she begins to direct her gaze towards present-day family dynamics. When the truth eventually emerges and Rosa becomes aware of her family's involvement in the mafia, she must decide what she is willing to risk in order to break out of the 'Ndrangheta. Based on the novel Fimmine rebelli by journalist Lirio Abbate and true stories of women who stood up to the 'Ndrangheta, this drama from Francesco Costabile is a powerful feature film debut about a unique yet timeless story of resistance.

THE GREAT SILENCE

IL SILENZIO GRANDE

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

In 1960s Naples, Villa Primic, once a luxurious home, now a creaky mansion straight out of a ghost story. In a painful and reluctant decision, it has been put up for sale by Mrs Rose Primic (Margherita Buy, Three Floors IFF21) and the two heirs to the Primic's dilapidated fortune, Massimiliano (Emanuele Linfatti) and Adele (Antonia Fotaras). The only member of the family who is not at all happy with the decision is the head of the household, Valerio (Massimiliano Gallo, The Hand of God). He discovers that he has never really known his loved ones and, perhaps, not even himself, and grudgingly reaches the conclusion that living is not the same thing as being alive. In his third feature as a director, Alessandro Gassmann brings Maurizio De Giovanni's stage play of the same name to the big screen. Facing the inevitable changes and passing of time, The Great Silence is the story of the voices and silences of a chaotic family, marked by conflicts and misunderstandings.

THE INNER CAGE

ARIAFERMA

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Winner of the 2022 David di Donatello Awards for Best Original Screenplay and Best Actor, The Inner Cage is an affecting group character study set within the last remains of an abandoned prison. A 19th century prison, located in a remote and unspecified part of the Italian territory, is being decommissioned. As a result of bureaucratic holdups, transfers have been blocked and a dozen detainees and a few guards are left, waiting to be sent to new destinations. While they wait, a group of officers must remain on the premises to watch over the detainees, led by guard captain Gaetano (Toni Servillo, The Great Beauty IFF13), while the prisoners have their own self-appointed boss, influential mobster Carmine (Silvio Orlando, The Ties IFF21). As the rules that kept the guards and prisoners separate are loosened, new forms of relationships emerge among the remaining men. Backed by a strong ensemble cast, Leonardo Di Costanzo's evocative drama depicting the prison's inner workings is imbued with a suspenseful atmosphere and a theatrical tone.

THE KING OF LAUGHTER

QUI RIDO IO

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Winner of Best Director and Best Screenplay at the 2022 Nasti d'Argento Awards, this extravagant biopic depicts the life of the 19th- and early-20th-century king of Neapolitan comedians, the great actor and playwright Eduardo Scarpetta, masterfully portrayed by Toni Servillo. Devoting his life to the theatre and achieving great success, Scarpetta created works that went on to become timeless classics, like Miseria e Nobiltà. Ever-present was his peculiar family, composed of his wife Rosa (Maria Nazionale), lovers and legitimate and illegitimate children. In 1904, at the height of his popularity, Scarpetta took a great risk: he staged a parody of Il Figlio di Iorio, a tragedy written by the greatest Italian poet of the day, Gabriele D'Annunzio. This parody became central to a memorable trial, the first ever lawsuit on copyright in Italy. Moving from the stage to behind the curtain, Mario Martone's (also directs Nostalgia) backstage drama The King of Laughter is a lavish biopic of the legendary Scarpetta, made with a clear love for the theatre.

THE LEGEND OF THE CHRISTMAS WITCH 2: THE ORIGINS

LA BEFANA VIEN DI NOTTE 2: LE ORIGINI

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Set in the 18th century, this fantastical prequel to the hugely popular comedy The Legend of the Christmas Witch (IFF19) follows Paola (Zoe Massenti), a young, reckless street urchin who inadvertently gets in the way of the plans of the terrifying Baron De Michelis (Fabio De Luigi). A small and mean hunchbacked man, he has an immense thirst for power and a boundless hatred towards witches. The intervention of the sweet and powerful Dolores (Monica Bellucci), a good witch who dedicates her life to children, saves Paola from danger. Amongst a magical apprenticeship, breakneck pursuits, incredible transformations and a whole lot of trouble, Paola will discover that fate has something very special in store for her. And so the legends begins... Written by Nicola Guaglianone (It's the Law IFF17) and featuring an excellent ensemble cast, this family adventure expresses the power of imagination and fantasy, telling the story of the origins of the Befana.

THE SHADOW OF THE DAY

L'OMBRA DEL GIORNO

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Set in the picturesque provincial town Ascoli Piceno in central Italy, The Shadow of the Day is a dramatic love story set in the late 1930s. Luciano (Riccardo Scamarcio, Three Floors IFF21), a wounded World War I veteran and a sympathiser of Fascism like most Italians at the time, runs a classy restaurant overlooking the town's ancient square. He believes he can live his life according to his own set of rules. In his own bubble, Luciano observes the world through the window of his restaurant. One day, Anna (Benedetta Porcaroli, Baby) appears, looking for work. A young woman with a dangerous secret, she is hired for a job in the restaurant. Slowly, affection creeps in between the two and among the many dangers Luciano faces, there is the greatest of all: love. Featuring an ensemble cast including Lino Musella (The Hand of God), Vincenzo Nemolato (Gomorra) and Sandra Ceccarelli (Blanca), Giuseppe Piccioni's thoughtful melodrama reflects on Fascism and the pre-war atmosphere of control and isolation.

DIRECTOR: GIUSEPPE PICCIONI

Born in 1953 in Ascoli Piceno, Marche, Italy, Giuseppe Piccioni is a director and screenwriter. Since his debut film Il grande Blek in 1987, he has directed nine films and is known for the Venice Film Festival selected Light of My Eyes (2001) and These Days (2016), as well as the multi-award winning Not of This World (1999).

WITH OR WITHOUT YOU

UNA RELAZIONE

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Actress Alice (Elena Radonicich) and musician Tommaso (Guido Caprino) have been together for fifteen years - never married, with no children and without standout careers. They live in Rome, where they have bought an apartment, and a mortgage is the only real commitment they have made. When their friends receive an invite to dinner at their place, they think they're going to announce an engagement. But instead, the long-term couple announces their decision to break up, but do it gradually, and stay friends in the process. It's a legitimate aspiration on their part, but a naïve one, and contrasts with reality and the unspoken rule that relationships end because people change, and no change is painless. The feature directorial debut of successful screenwriter Stefano Sardo, who also co-wrote the screenplay with Valentina Gaia based on their novel Una Relazione, With or Without You is a realistic and delicate reflection on the end of a relationship.
