Spring is here and what better way to celebrate than with your annual escape to Italy!

The 24th edition of Australia's most passionate film festival features an incredible selection of new Italian cinema including all three Italian films that screened In Competition at this year's Cannes Film Festival, a line-up brimming with the best films from contemporary Italian auteurs and female filmmakers, a retrospective and many special events.

Our Opening Night selection sees us heading north with The Last Night of Amore, a Milan-set thriller starring the magnificent Pierfrancesco Favino. Showcasing a different side of Italy, we travel away from stereotypes and clichés and head to the Lombardy capital for a change of pace.

We hope you enjoy the journey.

Elysia Zeccola
Festival Director

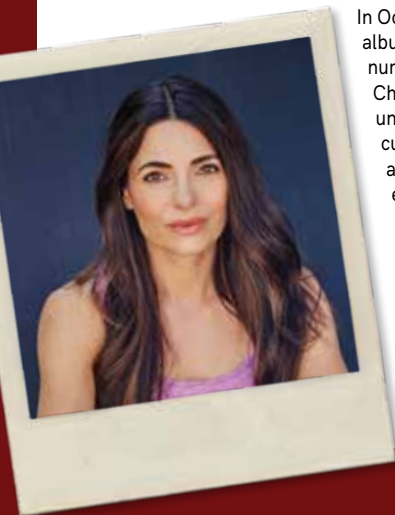

FESTIVAL AMBASSADOR Silvia Colloca

The Festival is thrilled to welcome the multi-talented Italian Australian food writer, actor, TV producer and Opera trained mezzo-soprano Silvia Colloca as our 2023 Festival Ambassador.

Her Italian heritage, coupled with extensive experience in the entertainment industry and a love of Italian cinema, travel and culture, makes her more than qualified to talk all things Italian!

In October last year, her debut album Sing Like An Italian peaked at number 1 on the ARIA Classic Album Chart and held that spot for an unprecedented 19 weeks. Silvia is currently writing her 7th book to add to her impressive collection of existing cookbooks.

Silvia will be in attendance at the Opening Night Galas in Sydney and Melbourne.

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

THE LAST NIGHT OF AMORE

L'ULTIMA NOTTE DI AMORE

A smash hit at the Italian box office in 2023, this taut, stylish crime thriller from writer-director Andrea Di Stefano stars the excellent Pierfrancesco Favino as a police lieutenant who is drawn into a web of crime and corruption on the eve of his retirement.

Franco Amore (Favino) has always been an honest policeman who in 35 years of honorable service has never shot anyone. The night before his retirement, Franco is called to investigate a perplexing roadside crime scene. What he does not know is that this will be the longest and most challenging night of his life and everything that matters to him will be in danger: his role as a state servant, his great love for his wife Viviana, his relationship with his best friend and colleague, and even his own life.

The Last Night of Amore transforms the Lombardy capital with slick nighttime visuals, brilliantly building suspense throughout the increasingly frenetic night on the streets of Milan where daylight never seems to arrive.

"It's been a while since we've seen such a stylish Italian crime thriller."

CLOSING NIGHT

THE POSTMAN

IL POSTINO

Critically acclaimed and loved by audiences around the world, Massimo Troisi's final film The Postman explores love, poetry and friendship in 1950s Italy.

On a tiny island off the Italian coast in 1953, shy fisherman's son Mario (Troisi) pines from afar for the most beautiful woman in town, waitress Beatrice (Maria Grazia Cucinotta).

When Mario is given the job of delivering mail to the town's new resident, exiled Chilean poet Pablo Neruda (Philippe Noiret), he forges a friendship with the poet to learn the secret of his power over women. Through their friendship, Mario learns lessons on love, life and poetry, as Neruda helps the shy postman to woo Beatrice, and inspires him to see himself and his quiet fishing village in a new light.

Posthumously nominated for two Oscars, Massimo Troisi, who died on the day production wrapped, delivers a standout performance as the awkward Mario in this heartfelt and lyrical romantic comedy, based on true events and Antonio Skarmeta's novel Burning Patience.

See p.22-23 for Troisi retrospective and p.34 for documentary.

BURNING HEARTS

TI MANGIO IL CUORE

Inspired by the investigative novel by journalists Carlo Bonini and Giuliano Foschini, this mafioso-western, modern-day Romeo and Juliet is a cinematic tale of love and death, cruelty and passion in a land of irresistible beauty.

A forbidden love between Andrea (Francesco Patanè), the reluctant heir of the Malatesta family, and Marilena (singer Elodie making her acting debut), the beautiful wife of the Camporeale boss rekindles an old feud between two rival families.

In an ancient land, their fatal passion sets the two clans at war again, where according to the ruthless codes of the local mafia, only blood can wash out blood. Marilena, now banished by the Camporeale clan and prisoner of the Malatesta family, is reviled and punished, and needs to draw on all her strength to overcome her destiny.

Burnt equally by the sun as by enmity, the promontory of Gargano in Puglia is the backdrop for Pippo Mezzapesa's passionate crime drama Burning Hearts, an intense story of love and revenge.

"Blood feuds have rarely been so beguiling. After many years on the sidelines, Mezzapesa has arrived."

CARAVAGGIO'S SHADOW

L'OMBRA DI CARAVAGGIO

Riccardo Scamarcio (The Shadow of the Day IFF22, Three Floors IFF21), Isabelle Huppert and Louis Garrel star in writer/director Michele Placido's (Crime Novel) fourteenth feature, an eagerly anticipated new historical drama depicting the struggles of the notorious Renaissance painter as he's investigated by the Vatican.

Italy 1610. Michelangelo Merisi (Scarmarcio), better known as Caravaggio, is one of the brilliant painters of his time and a rebel who ignores Catholic Church rulings that dictate how religious subjects are to be represented. Having been informed that he depicts prostitutes, thieves and vagabonds in his work, Pope Paul V orders the Vatican secret service to investigate. They must decide whether to grant clemency to Caravaggio who has petitioned his death sentence for the murder of a love rival.

While Caravaggio seeks refuge in Naples under the protection of the powerful Marquise Costanza Colonna (Huppert), the investigator (Garrel), known as The Shadow, begins the inquiry that will lead him to discover the conflicting vices and virtues of the artist whose life, or death, lies in his hands.

"This visceral epic glows like one of the painter's original masterpieces."

THE EIGHT MOUNTAINS

LE OTTO MONTAGNE

Winner of the Jury Prize at the 2022 Cannes Film Festival, The Eight Mountains is an epic journey of friendship and self-discovery set in the breathtaking Italian Alps.

Pietro is a boy from the city, Bruno is the last child of a forgotten mountain village. The two meet one summer in a small village in northwestern Italy and in their adventures together, they roam far and wide.

Over the years Bruno remains faithful to his mountain home, while Pietro aspires to greater heights. But as the years pass, fate reunites the two as young men (Alessandro Borghi and Luca Marinelli) and despite their attempts to erase their fathers' footsteps, through life's twists and turns, they always end up returning home. In their encounters, they experience love and loss, and are reminded of their origins, and discover what it means to be true friends for life.

Written and directed by Felix van Groeningen (Beautiful Boy) and Charlotte Vandermeersch, adapted from Paolo Cognetti's award-winning 2016 novel, The Eight Mountains is a beautiful story of childhood, friendship and love.

"Rich and beautiful. A movie with air in its lungs and love in its heart."

KIDNAPPED

RAPITO

Based on incredible true events, this gripping historical drama from master auteur Marco Bellocchio (The Traitor IFF20, Vincere IFF09) follows the story of a young boy whose abduction from his parents by the Vatican fuelled outrage in 19th Century Italy and triggered a global scandal.

1858, the Jewish quarter of Bologna. The Pope's soldiers burst into the home of the bourgeois Mortara family: by order of the cardinal (Filippo Timi, also in The Eight Mountains). Unbeknownst to his parents, Edgardo was secretly baptised by his nurse as a baby, so they have come to take six-year-old Edgardo to Rome to receive a Catholic education as per papal law.

Seven-time winner at the 2023 Nastri D'Argento Awards, Bellocchio's powerful and operatic new film probes historical antisemitism and the arbitrary exercises of influence by the pre-unification Church. Since its lauded Cannes debut, Kidnapped has reignited debate in Italy, where the actions of Pope Pius IX - who was beatified in the year 2000 - have never been officially condemned.

"Bellocchio has created a gripping, heartbreaking true-political crime story from the pages of history."

THE GENIUS OF GIANNI VERSACE ALIVE

Filmed in Gianni Versace's salubrious mansion in Miami Beach, where every object is a separate work of art, this feature-length documentary explores the genius of the Italian fashion icon.

Celebrating the extraordinary life and career of the influential Italian fashion designer, from his birth in the city of Reggio Calabria, Italy on 2 December 1946, where he grew up with his elder brother Santo and younger sister Donatella, with their father and dressmaker mother, through to the building of his Versace empire.

Through archival material, the confessions of friends and former colleagues, and the showcasing of his many extraordinary homes including his Miami Beach Palazzo, the Casa Casuarina, a portrait of an inspired designer emerges.

One of the first designers to link fashion to the music world and always treading the line between classic and modern, Versace redefined the way we perceive fashion and clothing. This directorial debut of former Versace model Salvatore Zannino propels us into the world of Versace and tells an intimate story of a man who believed in personal expression.

"Bring(s) the genius of the Italian fashion giant to life."

NEW ITALIAN CINEMA

LA CHIMERA

LA CHIMERA

This captivating new fable of lost love from Alice Rohrwacher (Happy As Lazzaro IFF18, The Wonders IFF14) follows a young British archaeologist who gets caught up in an international network dealing in stolen Italian artefacts.

Tuscany, early 1980s. Arthur (Josh O'Connor, The Crown) has just been released from a short stint in prison. During his earlier studies in the region, he fell in love with Beniamina, the daughter of an aging local aristocrat (Isabella Rossellini), but she is now gone. Arthur has fallen in with the Tombaroli, a rowdy crew of twentysomethings who pretend to make their living as farmers and entertainers, but instead pilfer the area's ancient Etruscan tombs for earthenware and ornaments to sell on the black market, hoping to one day strike it rich...

Fresh from a highly successful premiere at the 2023 Cannes Film Festival, Rohrwacher's rule-breaking, magical film uncovers a world of wonders just below the surface. La Chimera is a mesmerising ode to the fragility of the beautiful things in life, and a cautionary tale about how easily they can be lost.

"Utterly captivating. A movie bustling and teeming with life."

SPOTLIGHT ON CONTEMPORARY ITALIAN AUTEURS

Once again, the Italian Cultural Institute is proud to support the 2023 edition of the Festival with a special programme. Cinema is more than entertainment; it is a form of communication that connects millions of people through the stories it tells.

This is precisely why it is one of the pillars of the cultural strategy of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation, because it links foreign audiences directly with our country, becoming a privileged means of communication, through the transmission of knowledge, preservation of history and cultural heritage, and the enhancement of human and environmental resources that stimulate economic development.

In 2023, we focus on four established directors and their latest productions. We follow Alice Rohrwacher, who once again uses death to tell truths about existence with La Chimera; Marco Bellocchio, who reaffirms his secular spirit and tackles a dark page in our history with Kidnapped; Mario Martone, who pays a sincere tribute to Masimo Troisi with Somebody Down There Likes Me; and finally Nanni Moretti, who reaffirms his vision of cinema and the world with A Brighter Tomorrow.

Born in 1953, Giovanni "Nanni" Moretti is an Italian film director, producer, screenwriter and actor. His professional movie-making career began in 1978 with Ecce Bombo, his first nationwide success and a cult Italian film. Winner of the prestigious Palme d'Or in 2001 with The Son's Room, Moretti was the president of the jury at the Cannes Film Festival in 2012 and has since returned to Cannes in 2021 with Three Floors and in 2023 with A Brighter Tomorrow.

See page 26 for Moretti's all-star new comedy A Brighter Tomorrow.

RETROSPECTIVE – MASSIMO TROISI

Legendary actor Massimo Troisi would have celebrated his 70th birthday this year. Remaining a revered figure in Italian cinema over thirty years after his untimely passing, Troisi had a successful career in cabaret, theatre, television and cinema and is best known for his films I'm Starting from Three (1981) and The Postman (1994).

Born into a large family in San Giorgio a Cremano, outside Naples, on 19 February 1953, as a child, Massimo Troisi suffered from rheumatic fever and serious heart conditions. His acting career started at fifteen, when he began acting on stage at the Centro Teatro Spazio, going on to set up an acting group with fellow Neapolitan actors Enzo Decaro and Lello Arena.

A successful career ensued, with the group appearing on Italian television in the late 1970s, and Troisi perfecting his comic style in TV shows like Non Stop and Luna Park.

Moving into cinema in 1981, Troisi achieved widespread recognition with his debut film I'm Starting from Three, which he wrote, directed and starred in, before starring opposite Roberto Benigni in their 1984 classic Nothing Left to Do But Cry. In 1989, he starred alongside Marcello Mastroianni in Ettore Scola's Splendor.

Troisi was seriously ill during the filming of The Postman, and died of a heart attack on 4 June 1994, merely a day after filming was completed, resulting in an outpouring of grief in Italy.

A BRIGHTER TOMORROW

IL SOL DELL'AVVENIRE

From Italian maestro Nanni Moretti (Mia Madre, The Son's Room), A Brighter Tomorrow is a multi-layered new comedy about filmmaking in the age of the streaming giants.

Moretti stars as Giovanni, a prolific, pedantic Roman movie director who has just started shooting 'A Brighter Tomorrow', a new period drama but everything, both personal and professional, seems to be conspiring against Giovanni: his 40-year marriage and working relationship with Paola (Margherita Buy) is in crisis, his French co-producer Pierre (Mathieu Amalric) is on the verge of bankruptcy, and the commercial prospects of his new film in a rapidly changing market are decidedly uncertain. It may be time for Giovanni to start rethinking his stringent way of doing things...

Featuring an ensemble cast of Moretti regulars, A Brighter Tomorrow is the auteur's biggest box office hit to date, achieving over 500,000 admissions in Italy in mid-2023. Playfully blurring the lines between his on-screen character's life and movies with his own filmography and neuroses, Moretti invites audiences to take pause and to embrace the true joy and magic of cinema once more.

"Moretti puts a playful spin on a director's late-career crisis. The Palme d'Or winner has got his groove back."

DELTA

Italian star duo Alessandro Borghi and Luigi Lo Cascio deliver standout performances in this clash between local fishermen and poachers on the Po River Delta in northeastern Italy.

A local group of volunteers led by Osso (Lo Cascio) wants to save the river from overfishing and defend it from the Florians, a family on the run from the Danube region who are plundering the river's fish stocks and flouting fishing laws. With the Florians is Elia (Borghi), a man born and raised in the Delta, who once was part of the local community but now finds himself on the opposite side of the conflict.

Overwhelmed by a thirst for vengeance, the two men will face each other amidst the fog of the Delta. As their struggle intensifies, they will come to discover their true natures in a duel where nobody ends up a hero.

A gritty and compelling second feature from Michele Vannucci, Delta is a strikingly shot, atmospheric river-set neo-Western of rising tension between tradition and modernity.

LIKE SHEEP AMONG WOLVES

COME PERCORE IN MEZZO AI LUPI

A gutsy undercover police agent, Vera (Isabella Ragonese) has infiltrated a dangerous Serbian crime syndicate in Rome's criminal underworld. A fixer who procures materials, in particular weapons, for the clan, she has won the trust of its kingpins, while at the same time informing her bosses about the gang's next moves. To survive in such an unforgiving world, Vera is forced to be tough and insensitive in the face of violence.

All seems to be going as planned for a big upcoming heist, until she learns that her younger brother Bruno (Andrea Arcangeli) who she hasn't seen in years is also mixed up with the syndicate. Caught on opposite sides of the barricade, old wounds will resurface, and the pair will have to make choices that will seriously jeopardise their goals.

Combining a hard-boiled crime thriller with a family drama, Lyda Patitucci's fierce, gripping feature debut Like Sheep Among Wolves is a story of revenge and redemption against the backdrop of a moody, dangerous Rome.

MAGIC NAPLES

NAPOLI MAGICA

Considered the heart of the south of Italy, Naples has enraptured its inhabitants and visitors for generations. In the fascinating documentary Magic Naples, actor/director Marco D'Amore (Gomorra) sets out to uncover why his beloved Naples is said to be magical. D'Amore presents the city as a world suspended between reality and representation, ruthless truth and admirable fiction. With curiosity and attention, he unearths its mysteries, legends, tragedies, love and a three-thousand-year-old maze of tunnels - the tomb of the secrets on which the entire city rests.

From reality to fairy tales, iconic locations come to life, including the Fontanelle cemetery, Castel dell'Ovo, the chapel of the Veiled Christ and the Catacombs of San Gaudioso.

The viewer is invited to dive into the mystery with this charming journey, where the city takes on new shapes and contours, and Naples is seen from an infinite number of views - from the heights of the hills to the depths of the underground passages and the spirits of its past.

MY SHADOW IS YOUR SHADOW

LA MIA OMBRA È TUA

Giuseppe Maggio and Marco Giallini star as an odd couple who embark on a road trip across Italy in an old jeep in this beautiful love story and entertaining generational comedy, based on Edoardo Nesi's eponymous novel.

Emiliano (Maggio) is a twenty-five-year-old who has just graduated with honours in Ancient Literature, while Vittorio (Giallini) is a gruff sixty-year-old writer who has been leading a hermit's life in a farmhouse in Florence following the publication of his only book, which was a worldwide success.

The two make their way to Milan on a journey full of adventures and quarrels, all the way to a retro fair where Vittorio has agreed to give a speech, breaking over twenty years of silence, catching the attention of all of Italy and eagerly followed live on social media.

Awaiting them at the fair in Milan are Milena, the author's great love, and an enormous crowd eager to hear Vittorio come to terms with his past. Under the gaze of the country and gripped by nostalgia, he is lost in self-remembering.

MY SOUL SUMMER

Set during an unforgettable summer in Calabria, Fabio Mollo's third feature My Soul Summer is a musical coming-of-age tale that marks the big screen debut of 2020 Italian X Factor winner Casadilego.

A shy and insecure seventeen-year-old girl, Anita (Casadilego) feels different from her peers but has no true sense of who she is. In a summer by the sea, instead of spending her days with other teens on the beach enjoying the holiday fun, Anita prefers to study the piano to prepare for an exam at the Conservatory.

Next door to her lives Vins (Tommaso Ragno), a legendary rock star with a turbulent past. Vins recognises her special talent and encourages Anita to discover another way of experiencing music. Finding a voice that she did not even know she had, she also meets Vittore, a shy boy different from all the others. During her Soul Summer, a time unlike any other, Anita discovers herself, her talent and her true passion: music.

ORLANDO

Orlando (Michele Placido) is a surly farmer from a small town in Central Italy. He lost his wife years ago and now lives alone, playing the accordion at weddings and working the land. Valerio, his only child, left for Brussels twenty years ago like many other locals, which led Orlando to cut all ties with him.

However, when an ill Valerio reaches out to his father to ask for help, Orlando feels he must oblige. For the first time in his life, he leaves the town and travels to Brussels, only to arrive too late, and discover that he has a twelve-year-old granddaughter, Lyse (magnetic newcomer Angelica Kazankova).

The two are opposites - he a country man of few words, she a lively and determined city girl - yet, despite the obstacles, the two grow closer and come to realise that they need each other. A heartfelt and affectionate drama, Orlando is a modern fairy tale about facing the present and the choices it brings.

Jasmine Trinca delivers a standout performance as an Italian journalist kidnapped by ISIS, and the relationship she forms with her keeper, a foreign fighter who was radicalised in London, in this engrossing drama.

Sara (Trinca) is an Italian journalist who is reporting in Syria on the war against the Islamic State. Nur (Isabella Nefar) is a young foreign fighter, the wife of a jihadist, who lives in a training camp. When Sara is kidnapped by ISIS and taken prisoner, as a woman she is considered inferior to men and cannot be locked up in a prison alongside them. So, she is entrusted to the care of Nur, whose home becomes Sara's prison and Nur her jailer.

As the days go by, relations become more and more tense between the two, with their dynamic based on silences, blackmail, and manipulation. Although Nur is the only person Sara can interact with somewhat freely, she is also attempting to convert Sara to Islam and join ISIS. As bombs explode around them, and in the face of psychological warfare, how long can Sara resist?

SOMEBODY DOWN THERE LIKES ME

LAGGIÙ QUALCUNO MI AMA

In this personal journey into the cinema of Massimo Troisi (1953-1994), acclaimed director Mario Martone explores the life and career of the great actor and director.

Assembling scenes from Troisi's films, Martone outlines the artistic curve spanning his career, framing him within the climate of the time in which he worked, and the magical city common to both directors, Naples.

Intertwined with this collection of memorable film scenes are frank conversations with artists whose careers were influenced by Troisi, including Francesco Piccolo, Paolo Sorrentino, Ficarra and Picone, and critics who wrote about him like Goffredo Fofi, and two of the makers of his posthumous work The Postman (1994), Michael Radford and Roberto Perpignani.

Writer Anna Pavignano, Troisi's partner in life and career, as co-writer on his films, also provides a first-hand account of his creative process and shares precious unpublished archival materials, revealing how Troisi's ideas came to life.

STRANGENESS

LA STRANEZZA

The top Italian film at Italy's box office in 2022 and declared Film of the Year at the 2023 Nastro d'Argento Awards, Roberto Andò's imaginative and irreverent twelfth feature Strangeness explores the inspiration behind one of modern Italian theatre's revolutionary works.

It is 1921 and future Literature Nobel Prize Winner Luigi Pirandello (Toni Servillo, The King of Laughter IFF22, The Great Beauty IFF14) returns to his beloved Sicily for the 80th birthday of his mentor, famous novelist and playwright Giovanni Verga.

Upon his arrival in Agrigento, unexpected news catapults him into a universe populated by incredible personalities, ghostly visions, distant memories and melancholy apparitions. Here he encounters a pair of gravediggers/aspiring actors, Onofrio and Sebastiano (comedy duo Salvatore Ficarra and Valentino Picone, Once Upon a Time...in Bethlehem IFF20) who deliver hilarious, amateur stage productions. On this compelling journey Pirandello is stirred out of a creative block and confronts his nostalgia, propelling him toward the creation of his masterpiece, "Six Characters in Search of an Author" a work which will mark a worldwide revolution in twentieth-century theatre.

THE CIRCLE

IL CERCHIO

Who are today's children? What do they think and what do they manage to grasp of the adult world?

Winner of Best Documentary at the 2023 David di Donatello Awards, writer/director Sophie Chiarello attempts to answer these questions by going direct to the source - the children themselves.

For five years with her camera, Chiarello follows the pupils of a primary school class in a multi-ethnic neighbourhood. Using the practice of 'circle time', where sitting in a circle on the floor, students, the teacher and the director speak on a regular basis over the five years, creating a space for non-judgmental listening and a personal time for sharing.

Director Chiarello lowers her gaze to child height to capture their point of view of the world, The Circle is a portrait of childhood in which today's Italy is reflected. Disarming and genuine, this is not a documentary about children, but rather a reflection on the formation of our society, in a space where children listen and grow.

THE ORDER OF TIME

L'ORDINE DEL TEMPO

Direct from its world premiere at the 2023 Venice International Film Festival, The Order of Time is an all-star ensemble drama about the reality of time and the meaning of life, featuring Alessandro Gassmann, Claudia Gerini, Edoardo Leo and Angela Molina.

Like every year, a group of long-term friends meet in a seaside villa to celebrate a birthday. One evening at their annual get-together, they discover that there may be only a few hours left before the end of the world. From that moment on, the time that separates them from the possible end of the world seems to flow differently, as it moves both fast and eternal. Over the course of a summer night their lives will be changed forever.

Loosely inspired by the bestselling physics novel by Carlo Rovelli, The Order of Time marks the return of director Liliana Cavani (Ripley's Game, The Night Porter) who received a Golden Lion for Lifetime Achievement at this year's Venice International Film Festival.

THE PROPERTIES OF METALS

LE PROPRIETÀ DEI METALLI

Set in an idyllic small village in the Italian mountains in the 1970s, The Properties of Metals follows Pietro (wonderful newcomer Martino Zaccara), a child raised by his surly widowed father (Antonio Buil, The Inner Cage IFF22). While Pietro spends his days playing with other local children and his younger brother, his father attempts to unburden the family from their debts.

One day Pietro begins to manifest mysterious gifts - he can bend metal simply with his mind. Soon word spreads beyond their small village, but people are divided in their belief of him. When a university professor starts visiting Pietro to study him, the experiments will lead the child towards an invisible world where the unquestionable laws of physics collide with the deepest human desires.

Inspired by the 1970s televised performances of Israeli-British illusionist Uri Gellar, who appeared to bend keys and spoons with a single touch, and the phenomenon of Minigellers, children who imitated Gellar's illusions, this is a poetic feature film debut written and directed by Antonio Bigini, in which hope and belief collide.

"Bigini has a knack for Italian neo-realism, as he curates an eerie atmosphere and directs great performances."
